

Series

The Greek Gods are about to go to war, each faction is racing to gain every advantage they can. A Chosen One, leaders who just want to be a family, and brothers who refuse to give up an ounce of power all await war in this Game of Thrones meets Percy Jackson series.

Abused, neglected and terrified, the women of a small village flee their homeland in search of peace and comfort. Peace, strength and prosperity has been the life of these women for nearly a decade, until they came. The magic and sisterhood of Charmed meets the power of the Amazons in this celtic inspired story of love, loss and hope.

A group of Gods trying to earn their way into Valhalla find themselves on earth as disoriented humans. Vikings meets actual Norse Mythology in this fantasy adventure series.

Three women seek revenge for the loss of loved ones, another fights for the rights of people in a far off sea, and yet another wages war on land. With all the swashbuckling adventures of Pirates of the Caribbean and all the wit and charm of The Princess Bride, By the Sea brings a new vision of pirates to audiences.

Lav is a young woman struggling with relationships, personal identity and responsibility. The small town charm of One Tree Hill meets the drama, passion and interpersonal stress of Euphoria in this relatable and universal series.

Escaping from the expectations of society and their overbearing parents a group of young women run to the woods to explore freedom, their dreams and their relationships. Little Women meets Dead Poet's Society in this short series about growth, adolescence and love.

Features

A young demi-god on a journey to earn his right on Olympus kills an ancient creature. The person that loved her makes it their mission to make the arrogant Perseus pay for what he did. Tying into the history of Battle of the Gods, we hear the untold story of Medusa.

An old story retold from the perspective of Mina Harker brings forth the timeless structure of Bram Stoker's Dracula and the feminist heart of Van Helsing in this tale of forbidden romance, Mina.

Have you ever wondered how much your life is worth? Well in a world where how we live our lives is reduced to nothing but numbers a group of women longs for more. Thelma and Louis meets Eat Pray Love in 100% a story of longing, identity and hope.

Time and art heals all wounds. Beauty in Watercolors tells the story of love, grief and letting go in this Set It Up meets Midnight in Paris film.

A football quarter-back and a cheerleader, the most classic of high school pairings is given a new twist as the story of For The Team depicts a lesbian relationship in the 1980s. The AIDS epidemic, Reagan's reign and traditional gender roles all provide obstacles for our heroines in this Friday Night Lights like film.